Introducing 21 Days of Prayer

Revival of God's People Leads to Spiritual Harvest

During the 40 days between Jesus' resurrection and His return to heaven, He gave one final command to His disciples:

“Go therefore and make disciples of all the nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you; and lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age” (Matt. 28:19-20).

Jesus entrusted the future of His kingdom to His followers. When His followers are right with Him, obedient to His command, and filled with the power of the Holy Spirit of Christ, they will be used of God to multiply disciples among all nations (people groups).

“God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself... and has committed to us the word of reconciliation. Now then, we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God were pleading through us: we implore you on Christ's behalf, be reconciled to God” (2 Cor. 5:19-20).

Christ's followers have been given the ministry and message of reconciliation. They are Christ's ambassadors. If His ambassadors are to fulfill their mission, they must live, think, act, and talk like Him. When people repent of their sin and come to faith in Christ, they are changed as their old sinful life is replaced with a Christlike life. God begins His work of transforming them into the image of Christ and they have the mind of Christ (1 Cor. 2:16). When large numbers or high percentages of a population are transformed, we call it a great awakening, a great spiritual awakening. THAT is what we need in America today, and that is why we are praying for God to do His work in us and through us.

During these 21 days, we daily will pray for God's people and His churches to be revived; so they will be the salt and light Jesus intends them to be (Matt. 5:13-16). When God's spiritual light shines into the darkness of an evil world, it dispels darkness as lives are changed. We will also pray to have God's heart of compassion for the lost world around us. As we become the instruments that demonstrate God's love, and as we share the message of the gospel (the good news about Jesus' provision of salvation) with those who need to be saved, God will draw people to faith in His Son (John 6:44, 65). Each day we will pray in four major categories:

I. Personal and Individual Transformation in Christlikeness

II. Restoration of Health in Our Churches and Denominations

III. Tears of Compassion for the Broken and Hurting in Our Communities

IV. Spiritual Awakening in Cities and Nations

I. Praying for Personal and Individual Transformation in Christlikeness

We will begin our daily prayer with a focus on what God wants to do among His people who have departed from Him and His guidelines for spiritually healthy and abundant living. Revival is what God does to restore life and vitality to those who have a saving relationship with Him. When we came to faith in Christ, God placed the Holy Spirit of Christ in us and began the process of transforming us into the image of Christ. When we have departed from Him, He calls us to return to Him and His standards for a healthy and vibrant life. As you pray, ask God what He wants you to do to demonstrate your repentance as you return to Him. Each day we will give you a topic to talk to God about for yourself and other Christians you know. When God speaks and reveals what He wants you to do in response to Him, obey Him. Here's the full list of topics:

Pray that God will enable you and other followers of Christ to...

1. Return to a first love for Christ.
2. Remove every idol of the heart.
3. Pray for and seek first the kingdom rule of God.
4. Surrender to Christ alone as Master and Lord.
5. Confess and repent of all known sin.
6. Put away any doubtful habit.
7. Confess Christ publicly through bold witness.
8. Obey the Holy Spirit promptly.
9. Reconcile broken relationships.
10. Return to holy and pure thinking and living.
11. Demonstrate Christlike love and compassion.
12. Demonstrate Christlike mercy and forgiveness.

13. Demonstrate Christlike humility.
14. Demonstrate Christlike acceptance.
15. Serve others with divine purpose.
16. Steward well God-given resources.
17. Abide in an intimate relationship with Christ.
18. Pursue a renewed mind through Holy Spirit transformation.
19. Use time wisely.
20. Work with honesty and integrity to make the Gospel of Christ appealing to others.
21. Remove every spiritual blemish that distorts the image of Christ.

II. Praying for Restoration of Health in Our Churches and Denominations

When God's people get right with God and His Word, churches and denominations will be restored to spiritual health as well. We need to pray for our leaders to lead us out of their own revived hearts and lives. As God establishes righteousness among His leaders, they are enabled to guide their people to follow the Lord as well. If we are to see our communities and nation transformed, Christ's churches need to function as He intends so that even the gates of hell will not prevail against them (Matt. 16:18). Here are our daily topics:

Pray that churches and denominations will...

1. Pursue a wholehearted love for Christ.
2. Help members make sure they are "in the faith."
3. Become and remain a people of prayer for the nations.
4. Restore Jesus Christ as Head of His church and Ruler of His kingdom.
5. Seek to align faith and practice with the plumb line of God's Word.
6. Publicly confess and repent of corporate sin that defames the name of Christ.
7. Demonstrate love for the lost world by meeting needs and sharing Christ.
8. Call out and commission those who are sensing God's call to vocational ministry or missions.
9. Forgive one another and reconcile relationships.
10. Bear one another's burdens and fulfill the love of Christ.
11. Love one another in tangible ways.

12. Humble themselves and put away corporate arrogance and a haughty spirit.
13. Restore and maintain the unity of the Spirit within the body.
14. Manifest God's oneness in relationships with those who are different.
15. Learn to function as a body of Christ where every member does his or her work.
16. Demonstrate wisdom and financial integrity in managing the resources entrusted by God.
17. Worship the Lord in spirit and truth.
18. Encourage one another and spur one another on to love and good deeds.
19. Demonstrate God's love by meeting needs of broken, hurting people.
20. Make faithful disciples who multiply through making disciples.
21. Do their God-assigned part of taking the gospel to the ends of the earth.

III. Praying for Tears of Compassion for the Broken and Hurting in Our Communities

Together we will pray for spiritual awakening in our communities. But that renewal comes as many people are rescued out of darkness and brought into the marvelous light through the saving grace of Jesus Christ. Bob Pierce (Founder of Samaritan's Purse) made a statement that has moved the heart of many Christians to pray the same thing. He prayed, “Let my heart be broken by the things that break the heart of God.”

People who are especially needy, may be more open and responsive to the invitation of Christ to saving faith. We will pray for tears of heart-felt compassion for the broken and hurting people in our communities. Compassion is not just sympathy or feeling sorry for people. Compassion compels us to take action. When Jesus was moved with compassion, He did something about the needs He saw. As you pray, ask God what He would have you and your church do for these people to demonstrate the love and compassion of Christ and share about His saving grace.

Keep in mind that even Christians may be experiencing some of this brokenness and woundedness. As they experience God's compassion and healing touch, they may have powerful testimonies to share with others with similar needs. Pray and take action for the restoration of Christians who face these circumstances.

Pray for people who are experiencing such things as:

1. Spiritual death and bondage to sin without a saving relationship with Jesus Christ.
2. Loneliness and isolation.
3. Alcohol and drug addiction.
4. Mental illness.
5. Homelessness.
6. Physical and/or sexual abuse.
7. Sexual trafficking and exploitation.
8. Brokenness in family relationships.
9. Injustice.
10. Unemployment.
11. Addiction to pornography.
12. Severe discrimination or prejudice because of race or ethnicity.
13. Persistent hunger and malnutrition.
14. Grief over death of close friend or family member.
15. Victimization due to crime.
16. Unrelenting bullying by peers.
17. Imprisonment due to sinful act or behavior.
18. Suffering from illness or physical disabilities.
19. Plight of children who are orphans or placed in foster care.
20. Loss of home, business, or livelihood due to natural disaster.
21. Helplessness as immigrants with language and cultural challenges.

IV. Praying for Spiritual Awakening in Cities and Nations

Pray for the light of the gospel to penetrate areas of spiritual darkness in your community and other cities and states throughout the nations.

Demonstrate your faith by preparing for a spiritual harvest among the broken; the sin-sick; and spiritually, physically, mentally, and financially needy who will come to faith in Christ. Also, pray and prepare to make disciples of those who come to faith who are affluent, influential, and successful from a human perspective. Pray for and prepare to help all these to experience the power of the gospel to make them new creations in Christ where the old is gone and the new has come (see 2 Cor. 5:17). Keep in mind that these brand new believers may be the boldest and most fruitful disciple-makers. Equip them to multiply the awakening to family, friends, coworkers, and those in their circles of influence.

In 1975 Loren Cunningham (founder of Youth With a Mission) and Bill Bright (founder of Campus Crusade for Christ) realized that to change society and to change a nation the gospel of Jesus must transform the people and penetrate the seven mountains or spheres of societal influence. As we pray for cities and nations, consider the ways God wants to transform and use the people of influence in these seven mountains of societal influence. Ask God to guide your praying according to His will and work in the lives of people of influence. (For more insight on praying, see chapter 9 in Making Jesus Lord by Loren Cunningham with Janice Rogers.) Here are the seven mountains or spheres of societal influence that need to be penetrated by the lives of people transformed by the gospel of Christ and the work of the Holy Spirit.

1. Family
2. The Church (Religion)
3. Education
4. Media
5. Arts & Entertainment (including Sports)
6. Business (including Science & Technology)
7. Government

Our primary prayer targets are the people in cities, states, and these spheres of societal influence. In the following daily prayer guide we list for the focus of your praying toward large cities and population centers, far and wide. Our yearning is for a great awakening among the people in these and other places that will bring a spiritual reformation to the nations for our good and God's glory.

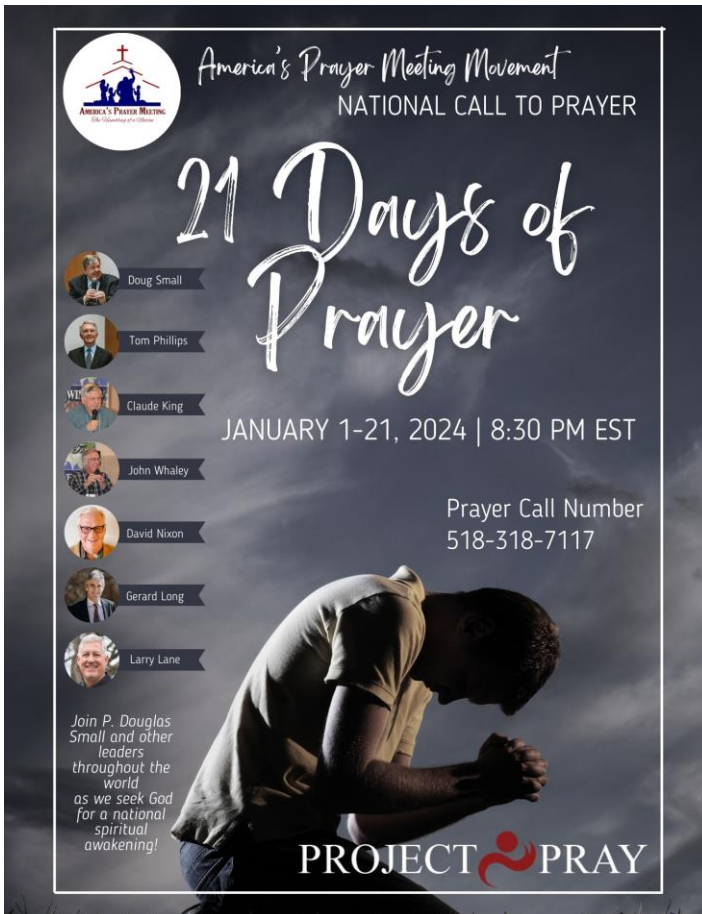

Daily, we will list one of the spheres of influence to guide the focus of your prayers. Don't let that limit you from praying about any or all the other spheres for a particular city or region. As you pray, ask the Lord to guide you specifically to pray for Christlike transformation in the lives of people in the various spheres of influence. Paul challenged Timothy and us to pray for all people for a divine purpose:

"I exhort first of all that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men, for kings and all who are in authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and reverence. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth."

Final Suggestions

- As you are praying, you may want to write out a prayer response to God in the space on the page or in a separate journal. Record the things you sense the Lord is guiding you to do in response to Him. Record Scriptures God uses to guide your praying.
- Pray with others: your spouse, family, small group, church, or coworkers. Use conversational prayer where you pray about one topic at a time and take turns praying.
- Consider joining others in a prayer call nightly January 1-21 at 8:30 PM Eastern Standard Time. Hear from national leaders, hear reports of God's activity, and pray for revival and a great awakening in the nation. Prayer Call Line is +1-518-318-7117.
